

Wired For a Life of Worship- Part 3

Where Does True Worship Begin?

1. We must remember that our worship _____ and _____ with God.

“That you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into the wonderful light.” 1 Peter 2:9

2. _____, Not _____.

“Jesus declared, “Believe me, woman, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²² You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews.” ²³ Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. ²⁴ God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in spirit and in truth.” ²⁵ “The woman said, “I know that Messiah” (called Christ) “is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.” ²⁶ Then Jesus declared, “I who speak to you am he.” John 4:21-26

Worshipping in “_____” means “Experiencing the life He gives by spiritual birth. Without His life, you can never truly worship.

To worship in “_____” means to worship God as He really is, bringing more than our words- bringing words amplified by an authentic life that flows from being spiritually alive within,” Louie Giglio

3. What is the _____ of worship?

No one took His life. He laid it down, willingly. He chose the cross in order to demonstrate that God was both loving and just.

“Truly this man was the Son of God.” Mark 15:39

“I waited patiently for the LORD; he turned to me and heard my cry. ² He lifted me out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire; he set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand. ³ He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God. Many will see and fear and put their trust in the LORD.” Psalm 40:1-3

“Worship is: our response both _____ and _____, to God for who He is and what He has done expressed in and by the things we say and the way we live.”

It’s Something You _____.

True worship is a _____ response to God’s greatness and glory.

Worship is all about God. It’s _____ Him and _____ Him.

True worship is simply catching sight of the greatness, majesty, glory, and grace of an infinite God.

While He holds entire galaxies in place by His power, He also invites us at any time, day or night to look up and behold Him as He is. He invites us to call Him by name and be His friend.
