Luke 23:43

- Read aloud Luke 23:43.
- Spend time talking about scenarios of how we can be hurt by others.
- Ask for real examples or use your own stories to make it personal.

Disappearing Ink Activity

- Using the Pilot FriXion erasable ink pens, draw a picture that represents sin and death (Note: You must use the specific pens listed in the lesson in order for the ink to disappear.). Be creative! Remember, we are not looking for the next Rembrandt here. Relax and have fun as a family.
- Carefully take a lighter and hold it under the paper until it heats up (do NOT catch the paper on fire!). The ink will disappear.

Disappearing Ink Explained

- Explain that the paper represents our life, while the ink represents sin and darkness in our lives.
- Talk about what each person wrote or drew.
 - How does sin affect our lives?
 - How does sin affect our relationship with God and each other?

- Jesus redeems each and every one of us when we choose to put our faith trust in him. He snatches us from death and darkness so that we can be with him forever.

A Closing Thought

- Remind everyone that through redemption in Christ, are sins are washed away, and we are as white as snow.

“Come now, let us settle the matter,”
says the Lord. “Though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow; though they
are red as crimson,
they shall be like wool.
- Isaiah 1:18

Close your time in prayer.
